stock of Drugs, Patent Med-

Books and Stationery, and is prepared to sell low at retail or wholesale.

W. D. MERIWETHER, Jr. TURNLEY, ELY & CO

TOBACCO

General Commission Merchants.

FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE.

Advances made on Tobacco in Store. We have secured the services of Col. W. F. Young, the well-known auctioner, who will sell all of our Tobacco for us.

We have erected a shed in New Providence, opposite the store of Messrs. McDaniel & Barbee, where we will receive tobacco and dray it to our warehonse free of charge for those persons who do not wish to haul it to Clarksville. Messrs. McDaniel & Barbee will receive, weigh and receipt for Tobacco delivered at our shed in New Providence. Oet 1 '71 -tf.

W. A. QUARLES. W. M. DANIEL Quarles, Daniel & Quarles, Attorneys at Law,

CLARKSVILLE, - - - TENN. Will practice in the Courts of Montgom-ery and adjoining counties. April 27, 1872-tf CHAS, W. TYLER. MOND B. LURTON.

LURTON & TYLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, CLARKSVILLE, TENN. Will practice in the courts of Montgom-ery and adjoining counties June 15, 72-1f.

JAMES W. RICE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Will attend the courts of Montgomery, Stewart and Houston countles. Office on Strawberry Alley, Jan. 4, 1873-ly BARKER & COURTS.

WHOLESALE GROCERS AND

QUOR DEALERS Franklin St., Sign of Sugar Hogshead.

RICH'D ANDERSON. E, 8, BRINGHURST. ANDERSON & BRINGHURST. DEALERS IN COAL, HAY, GRAIN, BRAN, ETC. FRANKLIN STREET, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Dec. 23, 1871-ly National Hotel, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

T. D. SCOTT, - - - Proprietor. This house is complete in all its appointments, and the table supplied with the best the market affords, at reasonable rates.

Jan. 29 '69-11'

JOHN MANNING Is Always on

JOHN MANNING has discovered that JOHN MANNING has discovered that the citizens of Clarksville and surrounding country needed a specific in the rarest game of the season, served up in European style on ten minutes notice, and as the canvass for the Presidency has now fairly opened, he keeps constantly on hand the choicest Wines, Liquors, pure imported Havanna Cigars and Cincinnati Lager Beer, to nerve all candidates on to victory, Restaurant and Saloon open night and day, where the most fastidious may be more than pleased.

Chas. Lehman

(Roths' Old Saloon) Having purchased the popular Saloon, Restaurant and Billiard Hall.

Formerly owned by G. A. Roth, has had the establishment newly painted and re-fitted, and is now open to the public, where all are invited to enjoy the best of Wines, Liquors, Cigars, and other refreshments. Everything kept neat and orderly. Aug 10, 72-4f

S. OPPENHEIMER, DEALER IN Wool, Ginseng, and all kinds of Metal,

Square, CLARKSVILLE. I am no candidate for office, but will pay ash for all articles in my line. sept. 28, 1872-tf

The finest selection of imported Colognes, Handkerchief Extracts, Hair Oils Toilet Soaps, Combs and Brushes of all kinds for sale by OWEN & MOORE

TO OUR FRIENDS .- Having gone to great expense to give our readers a larger and better paper, we would urgently request all indebted to us, by note or accornit, to come up, without delay, and make payment. We need the money, and hope this modest appeal will not pass unheeded. NEBLETT & GRANT.

Fine Cigars, also choice Virginia Smoking and Chewing Tobacco for sale by OWEN & MOORE

BYERS keeps the best Domescie and Havana Cigars, Chewing and Smoking Tobacco.

ROOMS FOR RENT. A small family can be accommodated with two large rooms and hall between, centrally located, by applying at this office. March 22, 73-14.

BYERS keeps a complete J. J. CRUSMAN WALTER McCOMB & Co MONEY SAVED!

Is now making large additions to his stock, and offers icines, Paints, Notions, Blank inducements to the Trade,

EXTRA GOLDEN SYRUP.

Crushed, Powdered and Granulated

SUGAR.

New Orleans, Clarified and Brown

SUGAR.

NEW CAROLINA RICE.

WHOLESALE

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCERS

Franklin Street

Clarksville, Tenn.

Are daily adding new supplies to their large and well assorted stock of

can be bought anywhere

in the South or West.

They invite especial attention to their very large Stock of the Best Brands of

Robertson County Whisky, Old

Brandy and Pure

We are

SOLE AGENTS,

IN THIS MARKET, FOR

DRAUGHAN'S

CELEBRATED

Robertson County

er purposes.

and satisfaction guaranteed.

Wines.

Staple and Fancy

Groceries FLINTHOMINY

CRITS

MAGCARONI.

TAPIOCA.

OYSTERS

PICKLES.

WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE

GELATINE.

Burnett's Flavoring Extracts.

DRIED BEEF.

PEACHES.

BLACKBERRIES.

TOMATOES.

CORN

COLMAN'S MUSTARD.

PURE CREAM TARTAR. PURE BI-CARB. SODA.

Pure Spices, of all kinds

Horsford's Bread Preparation, PURE CATAWBA WINE

Pure Cider Vinegar.

Old Sour Mash Whisky.

Old Peach and Apple Brandy. Old French Brandy.

300 Bus. Clover Seed. TIMOTHY SEED.

Orchard and Herds Grass Seeds.

BLUE GRASS SEED With all other goods to make a complete

J. J. CRUSMAN, Jan. 4, 73-1f.

BY BUYING YOUR

BOOTS, SHOES,

Gent's Furnishing Goods

HATS, CAPS,

V. L. WILLIAMS

REAL BARGAINS

now being offered to make room for our Fall Stock. Piease call and price our goods. specifully, V. L. WILLIAMS, 23 Franklin St.

SAM'L JOHNSON

POLLOCK & JOHNSON

W. M. POLLOCK.

GENERAL INSURANCE

-AND-

(Office Up Stairs)

CORNER FRANKLIN AND FIRST STS..

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE

Fire and Marine Insurance. The best and cheapest Life Insurance in the United States, The

OLD AND RELIABLE

New York Life Ins. Co.,

no new-langled, untried, or experimental company, but one time tried and tested and ever found worthy. Undoubted in-demnity at the

which they sell as low as they LOWEST KNOWN BATES CONSISTENT

Be not deceived and misled. The best is the cheapest. If you wish to insure your life, choose a company of age, experience and ability, and you will select the "Old Reliable" New York Life.

Will give our attention to the buying, selling and renting of real estate, March 15, "73-tf.

J. J. HAMLETT Manufactures and Dealer in STOVES, TINWARE,

HOUSE-FURNISHIG GOODS, ETC. Franklin Street-Dorris' old stand, Clarksville, Tenn.

Every description of Tinware nade up in good style.

ROOFING and GUTTERING promptly

Special Agent for Wallace's Patent Grate no All kinds of repairing done. H. P. DORRIS will superintend the

Aug. 9, 78-tf SETTLE & SON, Ag'ts, CROCERS,

And Dealers in Country Produce Generally

FRANTLIN HALL BUILDING,

CLARKSVILLE, TENN. We keep every variety of

FAMILY SUPPLIES.

WANTED. Country Produce of all kinds, Poultry, Eggs, Butter, etc., for which we will ex-change Groceries or pay cash, SETTLE & SON.

COAL! COAL! We are delivering St. Bernard Coal, within the limits of the city, for 18 cents per bushel. Pittsburg Coal, for 30 cents per bushel. Terms cash. F. P. GRACEY & BRO. Sep. 2, 1871-tf

ICE CREAM AND SODA WATER

DOLLS,

LIGON & ELY'S. We have opened our Ice Cream Saloon for the season, and are prepared to furnish any quantity that may be desired.

We have on hand a large and varied as-

Whiskey confectioneries, FIREWORKS, MASKS, particularly suited to those TOYS. who want a pure article for medicinal or oth-

Orders promptly attended to is in full operation. Fresh Yeast, Bread, and every variety of Cakes, fresh from the ovenevery day. All orders promptly filled.

Walter McComb & Co.

Hush! the night is calm and quiet,
And the crescent moon hangs low;
Silence deep and wide hath power,
And the south winds wander slow
Through a casement where the curtain
Faintly rustles to and fro.

Even through the gates of slumber
To the shadowy land of rest,
He still class his long-sought treast
Closely, closely, to his breast,
With the ardor of a passion
Long denied and long repressed.

With his lips still warm with kisses
Close and clinging as his own,
Sighing still in happy dreaming
For the joy his heart hath known—
Sweetly, peacefully he slumbers
In the arms about him thrown. And she gazed at him, thinking— Not of all herdreary years— Only of this isle of glory, Reached with many doubts and fears, Over love's frail bridge of rainbows Fading in a mist of tears.

Then she nestles still more closely
To the heart so kind and dear,
Whispering, "Love me, love me, darling,
All my hope and rest is here,
And without thee life is nothing
But a desert cold and drear.

"Oh, that every night my slumbers Might be so supremely blest, Bounded by thy dear embraces, Kissed from passion into rest; I would ask no better haven, Sheltered thus, and thus caressed." Fan them gently, odorous south wind, And begone on pinions fleet, Nothing in thy nightly journey Shall thy wandering vision greet Half as perfect in fulfillment, Satisfying and complete. —Mary L. Ritter, in August Galaxy.

A CLOSE SHOT.

Where the Kentucky river cuts its way through the mountains, having upon either bank bold, rugged cliffs that lift their summits five hundred and a thousand feet as the case may be, above the stream, there lived, in early times, a settler by the name of Rufus Branson, who with his wife and only child, a charming little girl of some eight or nine years, occupied a rude cabin at the base of a precipice a little

Although greatly expesed to danger—the Indians at that time being plentiful throughout the region—he managed to live quietly for several The Indians frequently visited the home of the rude hunter, and being always welcomed and provided with such food as might be in the larder, they maintained a very friendly atti-

on and his wife

were seated near the door-way when, the little one was in its mother's arms. suddenly, a shadow fell across the threshhold, and the next moment, a tall savage, whose reeling and blood-shot eye, told that he was intoxicated, ger prepared to depart.
"My name is Daniel Boone," he said appeared, staggered to the log steps and threw himself upon them. His first demands were for "fire waand was gone. which were of course, refused on the plea that there was none in the

The Indian become cross and ugly swearing with terrible oaths that if the liquor was not produced, he would murder the household. Branson was a brave man, and although he dreaded the necessity yet he saw that he would be compelled to take prompt steps to prevent the savage from executing his threats. Waiting until the warrior had made a demonstration-which he soon did by attempting to draw his tomahawk—Branson sprang upon him, knocked him down with a blow of his fist, and then disarmed and bound Court, informing him that the great him where he lay. After a few min-utes of futile efforts to free himself, case of "Gibbons vs. Ogden" would be called on for argument the next the savage rolled over and sunk into a drunken slumber. He did not awake until next mornafter the tariff question should have been disposed of, he still would have ing, but before he did so, the settler had quietly removed his bonds and reten days to prepare himself for this stored the weapons, which he laid by the sleeper's side. formidable conflict, in which the The savage on waking, rose slowly to his feet, felt his wrists, as though New York, granting a steam-boat monoply of its tide-waters, should the thongs had left a feeling there, be decided. took up his weapons, and, without speaking a word, left him, and disapto a conclusion as speedily as he could, appeared in the timber that stood and hurried to make such preparations near by.

"What do you think of that?" asked for the great law argument as the shortest notice would permit. He had then taken no food since his morning's the wife, turning to the husband with a scared look.
"Pshaw! Don't trouble yourself breakfast; but instead of dining took a moderate dose of medicine and about the drunken brute," answered the settler lightly, but, as he turned away, and stepped into the yard, he muttered:—"Like it! Well, not much. went to bed and to sleep. At 10 P. M. he awoke, called for a bowl of tea and, without other refreshment, went immediately to work. To use his own phrase, The fellow must be watched. I was in hopes he would not have remembered, but that lump, where my fist landed was enough, if nothing else, to recall for more than a year." He worked all night, and, as he has told me more the circumstance. occasion had so completely free use of The summer passed; they saw the drunken guest no more. He failed to all his faculties. He hardly felt he had bodily organs, so entirely had his make his appearance. But as the leaves began to fall, the settler, one day, while returning from hunting on the hills. and passing through a dense piece of timber, caught sight of a figure lurk-ing in the bushes, but which quickly disappeared when he advanced toward shaved, took a very light breakfast of tea and crakers; he looked over his where it was. The figure was that of an Indian warrior, and Rufe Branson would have sworn that it was the Indian whom he had knocked down and bound the previous summer. The knowledge was not at all comforting, hence he did not tell his wife of the discovery. It would alarm her, without, perhaps, any good result. He merely told her he had discovered bear tracks near by, and she and the child must stay within or close to the house when he was absent. Several days afterward Rufe Branson heard his dogs in the timber, down by the river, and, knowing that they never opened without good cause, he what would amount to half the rewhat would amount to half the redrop I ever will sell to any one!' And where they were barking. They had had struck a fresh bear trail, and as he arrived in sight they fairly lifted it going on in a straight line down the

The chase had led him several miles and when at last he got in his shot, that finished Bruin's career, he found that it was three or four o'clock in the writes to the Richmond Enquirer: Our City Council is a rare menagerie, Swinging his game to a sapling, out with 'Cat-fish Dick' looming up darkly of reach of cat or wolf, he started for home to get the old gray mare and return and fetch it that night. Taking a cut he approached the cabin from leased out to a speculator on speculathe western side, where the timber grew heavy up to within a few rods of not see the clearing, or what might be transpiring there, until he had passed through the wood.

of ignorant blackguards who are their masters, Catfish Dick & Co., who know no good but gain. Vote for the Radi he would charge him twenty-five dolthrough the wood. cals in November and make a duplicate

Thus it was that when within but a of all this in Virginia, or vote with up which the form of an Indian war-told him was the deadly peril of the by step he was increasing the distance,

ward, the parents saw in his hideously

"Too low by a couple of inches," said a low, calm voice, at the settler's self had been shot.

audible prayer.

rested a moment.

"It's our only chance. I know

By this time the Indian had nearly reached the summit of the steep .-

That he was wounded now became evi-

The opportunity was seized by

DANIEL WEBSTER'S GREAT AR-

prepare himself to speak upon it. From long before daylight till the hour when the House met, he was busy with his brief. When he was far constitutionality of the laws of

He brought his speech on the tariff

the tapes had not been off the papers of continuous intellectual effort, his

the morning journals, to amuse and into court and made that grand argument which, as Judge Wayne said above twenty years afterward, " releas-he may have thought of his powers on ment and setivity .- George Ticknor.

Anglo-Saxon Civilization Reversed.

A Virginian in Columbus, S. C., brief was completed.

rior was struggling.

"My child, my child!" was all the woman said, and then Rufus Branson saw that the bundle borne in the Indian's arms was the form of their only child, little Maggie. Who composed the following de-ription of the Bible we may never know. It was found in Wesminister Abbey, nameless and dateless: A nation would be truly happy if it Firm of heart, and with nerves as steady as the rocks around, the father were governed by no other laws than those of this blessed book. It is so complete a system that nothing can be added to it. for a moment actually quailed and cowered under what his quick sense

But he was quick to recover. The Indian was drawing away; step It affords a copy for rule for a subject. ority and direction to a magistrate. It cautions a witness, requires an impartial verdict of a jury, and furnishes the judge with his sentence.

It sets the husbands as lord of the painted countenance, the fell purpose that actuated the abduction.

"God aid me!" Branson muttered as he raised his rifle, glanced through the sights, and touched the trigger.

The Indian started violently at the household, and wife as mistress of the table—tells him how to rule, and her

It entails honor to parents, and en-He was hit, but not badly, and with a yell of devlish triumph, he passed ns obedience on children. It prescribes and limits the way of the sovereign, the rule of the ruler, and the authority of the master— commands the subject to honor, and the servant to obey, and promises the blessing and protection of the Al-mighty to all that walk by its rules. It gives direction for weddings and Where has that man come from?— Who is he? •Neither had seen him approach.

But there was no time for explanaimits the use of both.

It points out a faithful and eternal uardian to the departed husband and But there was no time for explanation. The stranger, a man rather below than above the ordinary height, whose fine, athletic form, was fully displayed by his closely-fitting buck skin garments, stepped forward a few paces, and grimly planting his left foot in advance, threw up an unusually long rifle as though preparing to fire.

"For God's sake, stranger, be careful of my child!" criend Branson, while the agonized mother muttered an inaudible prayer. father-tells him with whom to leave his fatherless children, and in whom his widow is to trust—and promises a father to the former, and a husband to the latter.

It teaches a man to set his house i order, and how to make his will; it appoints a dowry for his wife, and entails the right of the first born and shows how the young branches shall Indian," was the quick reply, and the sharp click of the hammer as it was drawn back, told that the critical mo-over-reacher and oppressor.

It is the first book, and the best book and the oldest book in the world. that it would be a great peril if I con-It contains the choicest mattertinued longer in the office, the certifigives the best instructions-affords dent, as upon a broad ledge of rock he the greatest pleasure and satisfaction that were ever enjoyed. It contains the best laws, and most nearly the whole of his brawny chest, everlasting, and shows the way to but leaving his head uncovered, the glory.

stranger did not hesitate in making It is a brief recital of all that such food as might be in the larder, they maintained a very friendly attitude.

Especially were they fond of the child, Maggie, and more than one fierce warrior had been sitting on the grass in front of the cabin, listening to the childish prattle of the little one, or else engaged in making it some toy or plaything from twigs or bark.

In this manner several years had been passed, and Rufe Branson came to feel as secure as though he was within the walls of a frontier fort.

One evening Branson and his wife the shot. For one second, as it gained child lay, and in a few moments more It contains the most ancient antiqui-

Tell us who you are, that we may know what name to mingle with our prayers," said the mother, as the stranwars. It describes the celestial, terrestial and infernal worlds, and the origin of the angelic myriads, human tribes, and

In the spring of 1825, Mr. Webster was much concerned in the discussion then going on in the House of Representatives at Washington upon the tariff. One morning he rose very early -earlier even than was his custom-to

It is the king's best copy, the magis trate's best rule, the housewife's best advanced in speaking, a note was brought to him from the Supreme guide, the servant's best directory, and man's master-piece, It contains choice grammar for a morning. He was astounded at the intelligence, for he had supposed that and the wise man's directory.

> ings for the grave, and is its own interthe swift, the overcomer; and promis- so many of your family died. es an eternal reward to the excellent, conqueror, the winner, and the prevalent, and that which crowns all is, that the author is without partiality, and without hypoerisy. In whom there is no variableness or shadow of turning."

From the Temperance Advocate. A young man entered the bar-room a village tavern, and called for a 'No,' said the landlord; 'you have had too much already. You have than once, he thought he never on any had deliriums tremens once, and I can not sell you any more.' He stepped aside to make room for a couple of young men who had just entered, and fasting and the medicine done their the landlord waited upon them very work. At 9 A. M., after eleven hours politely. The other had stood by silent and sullen, and when they had finished he walked up to the landlord, He sent for the barber and was and thus addressed him: 'Six years ago, at their age, I stood where tea and crakers; he looked over his papers to see that they they were all in order, and tied them up—he read of twenty-eight, I am a wreck, body the morning journals, to amuse and and mind. You led me to drink. In change his thoughts, and then he went this room I formed the habit that has been my ruin. Now sell me a few glasses more, and your work will be done! I will soon be out of the way; ed every creek and river, every lake there is no hope for me. But they can and harbor in our country from the interference of monopolies." Whatever Don't sell it to them. Sell it to me and let me die, and then the world the preceding night, the court and the bar acknowledged their whole force sake sell no more to them!' The

SINGULAR CASE OF DEPRAVITY. letter from Greenville, Tenn., says the Pantograph, relates the following. The cholera at Greenville has developed a few cases of monstrous depravity, one of which I will relate without entioning names. An old gentleman, probably seventy years of age, who lived a mile or two in the country and with 'Cat-fish Dick' looming up darkly as chief among them; streets all growing up with grass; no gas, no markethouse, no culvers, and the waterworks spread cholera through the town. He p to within a few rods of independently he could independ in the people crying out daily then went to an undertaker and wanted to know if he could make a coffin and the people crying out daily then went to an undertaker and wanted to know if he could make a coffin and the people crying out daily then went to an undertaker and wanted to know if he could make a coffin and the people crying out daily then went to an undertaker and wanted to know if he could not be a complete to the could be a complete to the could not he would charge him twenty-five dollars, but if after, he would charge only fourteen dollars. He told him to pro-

WHY HE RESIGNED. Ex-Comptroller W. W. Hobbs Publish

The following card from ex-Compt. roller W. W. Hobbs appears in the Union and American a few days since:

WAVERLY, August 11, 1873.

It contains everything needful to be which I am ready to verify.) which so fully refutes the false allegations contained in the Bulletin's article, that I scarcely deem it necessary for me to come before the public with this statement, unless it be further to contradict the statement of the Bulletin, that I had acknowledged that I had received $12,000 for the office, and treated it as a business affair; for I take it that the observing and thinking people will at once comprehend that no higher and no other motive prompted the said arno other motive prompted the said ar-ticle in the Bulletin, than to subserve the interest of the party of which it is the organ at Nashville. Some, per-haps, would appreciate the noble and tender charity of the Bulletin in trans-ferring the responsibility of the "ugly transaction" it publishes to others. excusing me upon the ground that I was "an unsophisticated man from the country, not accustomed to the wiles of the politicians in and around the Capitol, fond of my horn and hounds, and never having had so much money before as $12,000." I fail to see it in that light, and the extravagant charity of the Bulletin is wasted upon me. nounced, and truly announced at the cates of whom are herewith attached: JOHNSONVILLE, August 11, 1873. The opportunity was seized by the unknown.

It contains the best laws, and most profound mysteries that were ever penned—it brings the best of comforts to the inquiring and disconsolate.

It contains the best laws, and most profound mysteries that were ever penned—it brings the best of comforts to the inquiring and disconsolate.

It exhibits life and immortality from everlasting, and shows the way to but leaving his head uncovered, the stranger did not hesitate in making

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in making.

It is a brief recital of all that is to solve the stranger did not hesitate in the mineral riches of the Republic. Some time to the lieu that I have known Capt. W. W. Hobbs intimately for over 18 years, and for many years, was his attending physicia indications led me to believe there is a predisposition to pulmonary consumption. I have repeatedly expressed this opinion to him, so he could avoid exposure and other causes that tend to develop this disease. In my opinion he has inherited a predisposition to the disease, as his father, a brother and three sisters have died with consumption, and a brother at

Upon his election devilish legions.

It will instruct the accomplished mechanic and the most profound artist.

It teaches the best rhetorician, and exercises every power of the most predisposed to lung affection. exercises every power of the most predisposed to lung affections. In my skillful arithmetician, puzzles the wise opinion, Capt, W. W. Hobbs' health anatomist, and exercises the wisest suffered from the location of his office, too close confinement to business It is the best covenant that ever was change in diet, want of regular outagreed on; the best deed that ever was door exercise, etc., and he did his duty produced; the best will that ever was signed. To understand it, is to be wise indeed; to be ignorant of it, is to be WAVERLY, TENN., Aug. 11, 73. apt. Hobbs, Waverly: DEAR SIR-In reply to your request, the young man's best companion; it is I would state that when applied to by the schoolboy's book, and the learned you during your Comptrollership in renovice, and a profound mystery for a ment to the business of the office, I without making public the purposes It affords knowledge of witty inven-sedentary life or business of any char- full power of attorney, which has only close confinement of his office as Comp-troller of the State, change of locality, diet and water. I think the resignaor close physical confinement. Yours truly, John M. Driver, M. D.

What is the matter with him? WAVERLY, Aug. 10, 1873. "Only tight." This is to certify that I have known Captain W. W. Hobbs intimately for Captain W. W. Hobbs intimately for about seven years, and knew the family well several years previous to the time that I have been intimately acquainted with him. I have been his family physician for six years past during which time he has had quainted with him. I have been family physician for six years past, during which time he has had strongest love through life has been given to her handsome, talented brothhave induced me to believe there is a strong predisposition to pulmonary pressed my opinion to him, that he had a strong predisposition to consumption, and that he should be very careful not a strong predisposition to consumption, and that he should be very careful not to expose himself to damp and cold if so, he would sooner or later in life die of consumption. During the spring of 1872 he had a severe attack, principally affecting his lungs, at which time have any more health. I believed that he would go off in consumption. I think he has inherited the disease. His father, three or four sisters and a brought himself down to a level with brother have died with consumption, petite to crave the poisonous draught again; he has fallen from high and no-ble manhood to babbling and heavy stupor; brought grief to his mother, and he has a brother now lingering with the same disease. As his family physician and a friend, I have admonshed him in regard to exposure and the building up of his general health. distrust to his sister, almost despair to his bride, and bowed his father's head In my opinion Captain W. W. Hobbs' tion of his office as Comptroller of the State, was a duty to himself and fam-ily. W. M. SLAYDEN, M. D. The Madison Courier tells this of a evenue officer who was sent into the llicit whisky distilling district in Ken-As to my continued ill-health, while in the city, I respectfully refer those interested in this matter, to Dr. W. M. who was tolerably drunk, the officer Wright, Superintendent of Prisons, and Dr. J. R. Buist, one or the other of whom was treating me all the time.

Pat Sells a Revenue Officer.

As to my official acts while in the office dollars?" "Is it ten dollars?" said of Comptroller, I invite a rigid inves- Pat, "sure an' I do." "Then," said tigation, and the strict scrutiny of an interested public. In justice to his Excellency, Gov. John C. Brown, I will state that while we differed upon the order of two greations of leaves and fields to the camp of a company of several posts and fields to the camp of a company of several posts and fields. one or two questions of law, our relations were of the most pleasant character; that he manifested a lively in-

EL DORADO AT LAST. wonderful Gold Mine in the Argen-tine Republic—Two Leagues of Land Bought for One Hundred Millions of Bollars.

BUENOS AYRES, May 22.—I am en-abled by this mail to send you the particulars, so far as they have yet been made public, of what, if the account Having been absent for several days on business in the country, I returned home Saturday evening, the 9th instant, when my attention was called to an article which appeared in the Nashville Bulletin of the 7th, headed "Sale of the office of the Comptroller of the State." I have also seen the card of the Hon. John C. Burch in your issue of the 8th, (the truth of which I am ready to verify.) which so Having been absent for several days deposit, by which the vast sum of $100,000,000 in currency is to be paid, is the best evidence of the confidence that is placed in the results of this The great" find" has naturally at-The great "find" has naturally attracted the attention of capitalists and speculators, and while the general public of Buenos Ayres is engaged in wondering speculations and comments as to the probable advantage to La Plata which may follow an event which promises to bring among them a great tide of emigrants and gold seekers (for the fact of the immense undeveloped mineral riches of the Argentine Republic has now been fully established, it is claimed), moneyed men have been quick to turn the dismen have been quick to turn the dis-covery of the mines to immediate account. Parties interested have left here for England, whither the eyes of time through the press, to-wit: The condition of my health, having been advised by eminent physicians, who were intimately acquainted with me, co-partnerships with capitalists to work the mines or else to float the affair as a joint stock company. The discovery of the mines has been duelto perseverance, supplemented by science and a belief in the mineral riches of the Republic. Some time

Comptroller, I expressed my doubts to the north of the Rioja is the province ties, strange events, wonderful occur-rences, heroic deeds, unparalleled himself, as well as other persons, as to his physical ability to fill so confin-Juan and San Louis, to the east Cordoing and arduous a position with justice to himself. The office he occupied is situated in the State-house at Rioja is situated the Valley of Fama-Nashville, a building which generates tina, fertile only in spots where the streams, and of a length of about one hundred and fifty miles by thirty miles in width. The boundaries of this valley are on the west the Famatina range, and on the east the Velasco range of silver mines that it already contains, and hoping to make new discoveries in that quarter, the German finally wended his way. . Reaching Chilocito, the principal town of the valley, he entered upon his investigations.

In a short while he had established tence of gold in the valley. Contingard to your health, and the effect like- ment the precious metal was indeed ly to result from your close confine- there in abundance, and he at once, very freely advised you that if an arrangement could not be effected by which you could be released of the close so well that the spot which he had at stay at the Capitol, that the confine- first explored, comprising one league tions for the humorous, and dark say- ment and mental labor necessary to a of land, was sold to him for a very inproper discharge of your duties, would significant sum. This first purcha most probably excite into active exis-tence the disease (phthisis) with which one, and in order to include in his barso many of your family died.

I have known you and other members of the family for years, and leagues adjoining. This having been weuld, as before, advise you to avoid a done the discoverer sent to this city a > acter that requires great mental labor recently reached here Only Tight. "How flushed; how weak he is!

brace and brushes away the hot impure kiss he prints upon her cheek. on her lips to gaze in terror on the flushed face of him who was the god of her idolatry.

"Only tight"—as the father's face grows dark and sad, as with a bitter pally affecting his lungs, at which time sigh he stoops over the sleeping form it was my opinion that he never would of his first born. He has brought sorrow to all these health suffered in consequence of the with sorrow, but blame him not, he is 'only tight.'

Thus it was that when within but a very short distance from his home, he heard a wild piercing shriek; he could guess that something terrible must be taking place beyond the screen of bushes and leaves.

Uttering a loud shout that his presence might the sooner be made known, Branson sprang forward with the leaps of a wounded buck, a great fear at his heart for he had only too clearly.

Thus it was that when within but a very short distance from his home, he heard a wild piercing shriek; he could guess that something terrible must be taking place beyond the screen of bushes and leaves.

Of all this in Virginia, or vote with her white people and continue the prosperity which has maked the term of Gov. Walker. God bless Gilbert C. Walker.

Of all this in Virginia, or vote with her white people and continue the prosperity which has maked the term of Gov. Walker. God bless Gilbert C. Walker.

Of all this in Virginia, or vote with her white people and continue the prosperity which has maked the term of Gov. Walker. God bless Gilbert C. Walker.

A Dispatch from Elm Creek, Ne-brane and leaves.

A Dispatch from Elm Creek, Ne-brane and stricken down with the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse.

A Dispatch from Elm Creek, Ne-brane and stricken down with the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse.

A Dispatch from Elm Creek, Ne-brane and stricken down with the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse.

A Dispatch from Elm Creek, Ne-brane and stricken down with the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse.

Thus leconic that the manifested a lively infourcent dollars. He told him to protect with the matter, but to be sure to make it out of two ineh plank and important official matters, and refused the deed in the success of my administrate ceed with the matter, but to be sure to the success of my administration; was my daily adviser upon all important official matters, and refused to accept my resignation, which was to be deed in the success of my administration; was my daily adviser upon all important official

Useful and everything in our line that can be desired. Call and examine our stock.

Useful and everything in our line that can be desired. Call and examine our stock.

Useful and everything in our line that can be desired. Call and examine our stock.

Useful and examine our stock.

Useful and leaves.

Useful and leaves.

Useful and leaves.

Useful and leaves.

Copyoral atter a waise, our leaves and own with the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse."

It is in full operation. Fresh Yeast, Bread, and every variety of Cakes, fresh from the ovenevery day. All mothers promptly fills then place and what was further to fear.

No. 33 Franklin Street,

No. 35 Franklin Street,

May 17, 73-16.

Using a loud shout that his presence might the sooner be made known, while a party of two hundred and forty Pawnee Indians were hunting or two hundred and forty Pawnee Indians were hunting on the learning, holding in the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse."

This laconic but sensible German ought to be sent out to lecture among the popelpe on temperance: "I shall the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse."

This laconic but sensible German ought to be sent out to lecture among the present incumbent, the Hon. Jan. C. vales till." "Then dollars spone and what was to only to clearly recognized in that I did not know that he was to be my successor until he handed me his Commission to take charge of the single of the present incumbent, the Hon. Jan. C. vales till." "Then dollars spone and what was to only to clearly recognized in that I did not know that he was to methy the origination, was a tone time a very common tavern the learning of the present incumbent, the Hon. Jan. C. vales till." Then the cholera, and by next morning was a corpse."

This laconic but sensible German ought to be sent out to lecture among the present incumbent, the Hon. Jan. C. vales till." Then the cholera, and the office and the office and the wash of two hunts. The five Alls and the present incumbent, the Hon. Jan. C. vales till." The fourth,